Numb. 1543

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 30. to Thursday September 2. 1680.

Rome, Aug. 10.

PRince Radzeville, the Poliſh Ambaſſador, appears now with a great and Magnificent Train. He had ſome days ſince his publick Audience of the Pope, who afterwards entertained him and all his Attendants at Dinner, the Pope and the Prince Dining in the ſame Room, though at ſeveral Tables. The French Ambaſſador has had divers meetings with Cardinal Cibo and others concerning the matters in difference between the Pope and the French King, about the Regalij, which it's believed an expedient will be found to accommodate to that Kings ſatisfaction. This Afternoon dyed Cardinal Nini; ſo that there are now 20 places vacant in the Colledge of Cardinals.

Florence, Aug. 15. The Duke of Mantoua, we hear, is perfectly recovered of the Bruiſe he received by a fall from his Horſe. From Milan they write that a late Tempeſt has very much deſtroyed part of the Country of Cremona, ſeveral people and a great number of Cattle having been killed. It is reported that the Turks are drawing conſiderable Forces together in the Morea, of which the Venetians as well as the Spaniards are jealous, the latter being concerned for Sicily and Naples. From Rome they write, That there was no good underſtanding between the French Ambaſſador and Prince Radzeville, Ambaſſador of Poland, the latter pretending to be Treated with the Title of Highneſs, which the French Ambaſſador refuſed to give him.

Warſaw, Aug. 17. We are expecting to hear of the arrival of the Ambaſſador ſent by the King to the Czar of Moſcovy, to aſſure him of the readineſs of this Crown to enter into a League Offenſive and Defenſive, provided it may be upon equal and reaſonable Terms, which thoſe the Moſcovite Ambaſſadors, that were lately here, propoſed, were not looked upon to be; and that the Czar will reſtore to this Crown Smolensko and Kiovia, which he was obliged by Treaty to have done ſeveral years ſince. When we know what reception this Ambaſſador has at that Court, we ſhall be able to make a judgment of the Czars intentions in this matter of the League, with which we have been ſo long amuſed.

Lintz, Aug. 25. The Emperor has declared that his Reſolution is to return to Vienna the beginning of October, and it's ſaid that the 6th of September is fixed for his departure from hence. In the mean time we receive an account from Hungary, That ſeveral Skirmiſhes and rencounters have lately happened between the Imperial Troops and ſmall Parties of the Rebels, in which divers have been killed on both ſides without any conſiderable advantage to either; the misfortune is that the diſpoſitions appear not to be ſuch as is neceſſary they ſhould be before it can be hoped things ſhould be accommodated, of which, as matters now ſtand, there is no great Proſpect. From Poland we have an account that the Poliſh and Turkiſh Armies were Encamped not far from each other, and that the Commiſſioners were to meet between the two Camps for the regulating the Limits, in which the Turks did ſhew much forwardneſs, declaring that the Grand Signiors deſire was to live in Peace and Friendſhip with the Crown of Poland, and that he would proſecute the War he was engaged in with all his force againſt the Moſcovites. But the Poles do not think fit to rely upon thoſe kind of aſſurances, and are therefore reſolved to be upon their Guard.

Berlin, Aug. 28. Yeſterday the Elector of Brandenburg came hither from Poſtdam, and was preſent at the review of Collonel Wangelin's Regiment of Foot, after which the Officers entertained the Elector at Dinner in the Park, under Tents ſet up for that purpoſe, the Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, and Captains ſerving him inſtead of the Officers of his Houſhold. The Count de Thun, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the King of England, not having been able to obtain a paſſage through the Elector of Bavaria's Territories, without firſt performing a Quarantine, has ſent hither to deſire liberty to paſs this way, which it's believed will hardly be granted him, for the Apprehenſions (people have of the Plague, which is very much ſpread in Saxony, there being about 50 Villages Infected) are very great. The Rebels in Hungary are ſaid to encreaſe in ſtrength, and that they promiſe themſelves an aſſiſtance from the Turks, who it's feared will next Spring employ their Arms on that ſide.

Strasburg, Aug. 27. The Sieur de Monclar, who went to wait upon the King at Stenay is coming back; his Troops continue encamped about three Leagues from this City, where people have for two or three days paſt been in ſome little diſorder upon a report that has been ſpread abroad, as if the Biſhop of Strasburg had ſaid publickly, That in caſe this City did not give him ſatisfaction, as to the Rights and Juriſdictions which he pretends, he would make uſe of the Aſſiſtance which the French King had promiſed him to oblige them to do it; but whatever is publiſhed of this kind, we cannot think that the ſaid Biſhop has any other deſign than in a friendly manner to adjuſt the matters in difference, having to that purpoſe appointed Deputies to meet and Treat with thoſe of this City.

Cologne, Aug. 30. It has been noiſed about for theſe three or four days paſt, That the City of Strasburg was inveſted by the French; but the Letters we receive from thence this day make not the leaſt mention of any ſuch thing, nor of any danger they apprehend themſelves to be in. The Biſhop of Strasburg has been at Bonne, and has had a meeting with the Prince of Saxe Eyſenach. Prince William of Furſtemberg is preparing for his return to Franee, having as is ſaid advanced very little in his endeavours to